Don't go back to Rockville Don't go back to Rockville And waste another year At night I drink myself to sleep and make believe I don't care if you're not here with me 'Cause it's so much easier to handle all my problems if I'm too far out to sea Something better happen soon or it's gonna be too late to bring you back Don't go back to Rockville ...

R.E.M. - (Don't Go Back To) Rockville Lyrics | Genius Lyrics

"Don't Go Back To) Rockville" is the second and final single released by American rock band R.E.M. from its second studio album Reckoning. The song failed to chart on either the Billboard Hot 100 or the UK Singles Charts.. The song was written by Mike Mills (credited to Berry/Buck/Mills/Stipe), in 1980, as a plea to his then girlfriend, Ingrid Schorr, not to return to Rockville, Maryland ...

Lyrics for Don't Go Back To Rockville by R.E.M. - Songfacts

I understand entirely why Kio Stark has called her book Don't Go Back To School. It makes good marketing sense and it speaks to an idea, a concern and a longing that many people have. But in placing the word "school" in big bold letters, this discussion again gets skewed in what I think is the wrong direction.
