Deep politics, the subject of this website, is the business of deep states, clandestine groups who seek to exercise control over publicly acknowledged governments of nation states. These are directed by individuals who for want of a better phrase, we call "deep politicians". They use deep state actors to carry out their plans, organising and carrying out deep events to further their hidden purposes.

Shadow government and deep state are both political terms in a sense, as they're used to define the groups of people who control the U.S. government. I'm not referring to the people within political parties that perceivably control the system — not the Presidents or Congress — but the individuals and the companies who control the government and influence policies and decisions.
