In this commentary, William R. Newell consistently traces the Christological theme throughout the book of Hebrews and focuses on Christ's superiority to angels, Moses, Abraham and creation. This work is written in a practical and devotional style, but also contains comments on the Greek and English texts, and footnotes that provide discussions on the historical background and critical context ...

Introduction to Hebrews Verse by Verse Bible Study KJV
Hebrews tells us in v.2, that Jesus is the One who made the world, as described in Genesis 1. And of course, Genesis teaches that the creation process was itself the result of God speaking Creation into existence. This is why John takes to calling Jesus by the title "The Word" in his Gospel. Jesus is God's spoken Word, according to John
